About Us

Church & Page PLLC is a Yakima-based personal injury law practice that assists injured people seeking compensation and legal counsel. The legal office offers assistance with a personal touch, ensuring that each case receives the attention it deserves. If you want to be sure that you will be reimbursed entirely following your accident, you should engage our experienced team of personal injury lawyers. You will require the assistance of a legal practitioner if you have been hurt in a vehicle accident, a collision with a large truck, a dog attack, an injury on someone else's property, a slip/trip and fall, or any other injury. We've battled the big insurance companies rejecting or undervaluing the issue. Our injury lawyers are dedicated to providing compassionate and effective legal services for people who have suffered injuries through the negligent actions of others. If you are searching for a personal injury lawyer near me, get in touch with us.
